Infants' subspecialized ward

Infants' ward in addition to medical care for patient infants such as infants with LCD (long term breathing disease), offers following educations: family based care (preparation for care in home), educating for feeding with breast milk, educating to hug children by Kangaroo method and messaging the infant and other educations such as audiometry, vaccination, thyroid screening, Phenylketonuria test, eye disease, etc. and following up after discharge (until the infant is 2 years old).